Heavenly Wood is well known for its huge line of non-denominational church furniture. This month Heavenly Wood has added dozens of new handmade wood crucifixes to its site.

PR9.NET February 22, 2008 - Kaysville, UT – Heavenly Wood has been successfully selling Christian-oriented church furniture online for years. This furniture ranges from prayer kneelers and lecterns to wooden wall crosses and stackable chairs. This month Heavenly Wood has added 24 wooden Christian crucifixes and six new sick call sets to its Web site. This is a new market for Heavenly Wood and the company is excited about this new addition.

For just over two years Heavenly Wood has been selling Christian wooden crosses online. The line of wooden crosses has been successful and Heavenly Wood felt the handmade wooden crucifixes would be a great fit. The 24 new crucifixes are made from solid wood, are handmade and feature various stain finishes and corpuses of Christ. Many are available with bases for use on tables and counters and many are also available in various heights and sizes. Although these crucifixes are more commonly found in churches, they are also widely used in homes. You can find the newly added crucifixes here: <http://www.heavenlywood.com/crucifixes.htm?NR>.

Heavenly Wood has also added six new sick call sets. These are also handmade with particular attention paid to the detailing of the cross and corpus. The sick call sets, traditionally used by Catholics, are designed for use in religious practices with those that are sick or ill. All sick call sets include candles and a holy water bottle. You can find the newly added sick call sets here: <http://www.heavenlywood.com/sick-call-sets.htm?NR>.

All church furniture, including crucifixes and sick call sets, are available on Heavenly Wood's Web site. Customers may view and select products online, securely add them to their cart and have them shipped directly to the door of their church or home. Heavenly Wood has paid particular detail to making the church furniture easy to order. Orders may also be placed over the phone. This is all done to try and save clergy, priests and other people time by eliminating the need to physically visit traditional "brick-and-mortar" stores.

Heavenly Wood plans on continuing to add to their line of church furniture and is very excited about the new addition of crucifixes and sick call sets. For further information, please contact Morgan Cloward, Marketing Director of Heavenly Wood, 1-800-257-2968.
