Worldwide Industrial Marketplace, the B2B on-line industrial supply trade portal for Asia and the Middle East has launched a new Drilling Tools and Equipment Directory and Buying Guide.

PR9.NET February 20, 2008 - Westboro, MA - The global business-to-business trade site for industrial engineers, manufacturers and exporters, Worldwide Industrial Marketplace, announced last night during the company's monthly meeting held in Boston, the launch of its new Drilling Equipment Directory. According to a company spokesperson, the publication is designed to connect buyers and suppliers of all kinds of drilling tools, machinery, supplies and accessories for industrial and construction applications.

The publication includes offerings for a wide range of power drills and bits, offshore drilling equipment and rigs, directional and horizontal drilling systems, mining, deep hole, rock, water well, precision, diamond drilling equipment, reverse circulation, high speed, oil and metal drilling tools, woodworking drills, drilling lubricants, titanium and stainless steel drill bits as well as custom drills, equipment and allied products.

The Drilling Equipment and Tools Directory is located at http://www.WorldwideIndustrialMarketplace.com/directory/drilling_equipment.html and includes offers from manufacturers, exporters and suppliers serving markets throughout Asia and the Middle East. Including India, Indonesia, Kazakhstan, Singapore, Japan, China, Thailand, Malaysia, Kuwait, Iraq, Hong Kong, Taiwan, Vietnam, Pakistan, U.A.E., Saudi Arabia, Korea, Israel, Philippines and other countries in the region.

"The directory has a broad variety of drilling tools and equipment utilized by manufacturers, construction companies, mining, metalworking, woodworking, offshore drilling and other industries," says Frank Wallace, Business Manager of Worldwide Industrial Marketplace. He added, "Whether you need a large well drilling system for directional or horizontal drilling, high-speed power drills or any other product associated with drilling, you'll find a variety of suppliers in the directory serving your area as well as all over Asia and the Middle East."

According to Wallace, Worldwide Industrial Marketplace recently became an authorized search partner of <http://www.IndustrialCOOP.com>, an international co-op search engine filtered for the industrial community. He explained, "IndustrialCOOP can help users save time and money by allowing them to search a number of leading industrial directories, catalogs and portals with a single click. As a search partner we are able to provide our own users with millions of offerings for all kinds of industrial supply products."
