PR9.NET February 27, 2008 - Clifton, New Jersey – PatriaPet, LLC, manufacturer of high-quality multi-national pet products that let dog owners celebrate their heritage will debut its line of products at the Super Pet Expo March 28-30 at the Dulles Expo Center in Chantilly, VA.

PatriaPet, LLC; will debut several new dog collar designs at Super Pet Expo. PatriaPet collars are inspired by the flags of nations in North America, South America, the Caribbean and Europe. The designs let dog owners express their own national pride or even the heritage and origin of their beloved pet. Six and four foot leashes of similar design, now in development, will also be displayed at the show and will be available for pre-ordering.

Each adjustable PatriaPet collar is backed by a lifetime guarantee. The dog collars come in small, medium and large sizes and embody the design of a specific country's flag in bold and brilliant colors. The high quality PatriaPet collars contain a black ionized nickel d-ring, an ultra-strong Wienerlock® side-release buckle, strap lock and strap keeper.
