Denver's Mile High Honda announces continuing commitment to providing high quality Honda Element sales and service for Denver and Colorado area customers.

PR9.NET February 27, 2008 - Denver, Colorado - Mile High Honda today announced its continued focus on offering a wide selection of new and used Honda Elements. Mile High Honda located in Denver on South Havana is an established Denver Honda dealer of more than 20 years serving the Denver metro and Colorado Front Range areas. Mile High Honda's inventory of Honda Elements includes a broad selection of new and pre-owned vehicles. Prospective Honda Element buyers are invited to visit Mile High Honda in Denver to test drive a Honda Element.

The Honda Element is one of the more recent models to become associated with the Honda brand. In Denver, Colorado, the Honda Element is one of the more popular automobiles in the compact SUV category. First introduced in the United States in 2003, the Honda Element strikes a balance of utility, style and efficiency in an attractive all-around package. On the streets and highways of Denver and all across Colorado the Honda Element is driven by a cross section of people from professionals to families to outdoors enthusiasts. The 4-seat Element is designed to carry large and possibly messy loads. The floor is made of textured urethane that is easy to clean. The rear clamshell tailgate arrangement is large and the vehicle is tall, allowing large loads to be carried. The Element was nominated for the North American Truck of the Year award for 2003. The Element won MotorWeek's 2003 "Driver's Choice Award" for "Best Small Sport-Utility Vehicle".

Mile High Honda combines the availability of the Honda Element and other cars and trucks with its excellent service and full Honda dealer support. The Denver Honda dealer is open Monday through Saturday. Additional information about Mile High Honda and its inventory of Honda Elements is available at the website listed below.
