Trading EveryDay knows the Part-Time Trader's time is limited, so it has developed a course that is focused on the most effective and efficient ways to trade.

PR9.NET March 15, 2008 - San Jose, CA - Trading EveryDay has launched a course for traders of all levels that is absolutely FREE! Its new "Part-Time Traders Series" (<http://www.tradingeveryday.com/Seminars.html>) reestablishes Trading EveryDay in its already unique role of creating and developing high-quality and high-value products and services – all at lower than expected prices. With this one being FREE, rest assured that the high-quality and high-value remain intact.

Trading EveryDay knows the Part-Time Trader's time is limited, so it has developed a course that is focused on the most effective and efficient ways to trade. From basic fundamentals to time-proven strategies and techniques, this course will make you wonder why you weren't doing these things in the first place.

In the "Part-Time Traders Series", you will learn how to

- 1) Create and develop a system for your particular trading style that will optimize your trading efforts,
- 2) Master the most common and successfully used trading strategies and techniques professional traders use everyday - profitably, and
- 3) Most importantly, keep it simple – and still make money!

Not only will you get detailed Part-Time Day Trading Tips, you will also find out how to develop a plan for Continuous Improvements and how to Become a High-Odds Trader. You will walk away from this course with new confidence in your trading efforts with the goal of generating more profits. All for FREE!

The Series is held on a weekly basis for one hour. Currently, the course is being held on Tuesdays from 9:30pm to 10:30pm EST. If you are a Part-Time Trader or want to be one, you simply can't pass up this amazing opportunity to learn exactly how to do it well. Trading EveryDay has proven once again that its desire to assist traders of all levels to become better traders is not just talk. The company continues to deliver on its promises time and time again.

Trading EveryDay (<http://www.tradingeveryday.com/>) diligently works to create, develop, and launch new products and services on an ongoing basis. While the fundamentals of trading remain the "same", TED strives to meet the needs of those traders with the desire to improve their trading, reinforcing its goal to become a premier source of discerning traders for educational trading products and services.

Trading EveryDay is a distinguished provider of educational trading products and services, believing that the only difference between an average trader and a great trader is education and coaching. Its products and services are designed to cater to traders of all levels and meet their individual needs and budgetary limitations. Trading EveryDay products and services are available worldwide - all you need is the desire to improve your trading activities, a computer, and internet access.
