LawyerWorldIndex.com is now one of the only free directories for attorneys to list themselves and promote their law firm around the world. With cutting edge marketing technology your legal professional profile will be viewed around the world instantly. No obligation... just a free list for lawyers.

PR9.NET February 18, 2008 - Fort Collins, CO - LawyerIndexWorld.com unveils it's latest professional search database for attorneys. Easily list your law firm, attorneys, and areas of practice for free for a limited time. Search the database to find attorneys around the world by area of practice or region.

The LawyerIndexWorld.com Lawyer Directory, which is searchable by practice area, location and name, is another in the new suite of services that connect businesses and consumers with legal professionals. Easily search for attorneys and contact for pre-paid legal services, receive fixed-fee legal services or request quotes for legal services.

"With cutting edge web marketing and massive exposure the legal search directory is quickly becoming a leader in the legal web searches " says LawyerWorldIndex founder Terry. "Our web marketing and user searches generate the traffic and has the critical mass necessary to create a successful legal marketplace online. In previous professional search and marketing sites we have been very successful in opening businesses up to the masses. We look forward to having this legal directory meet with great success."

The LawyerWorldIndex.com Lawyer Directory provides lawyers and law firms with free standard listings. Legal professionals and firms also can purchase premium listings, which offer superior search placement, enhanced visual presentation and the ability to include more information to those searching the directory. For increased exposure our services may be applied to help you promote your services and your own law firm website if you are interested.

Legal marketing is a $4-billion+-a-year industry according to legal marketing experts. The Internet is revolutionizing the way people find legal solutions and the way lawyers market themselves.
