Tracey D'Aviero receives VAccolade Business Entrepreneurial award.

PR9.NET April 01, 2008 - OSGOODE, ON – Tracey D'Aviero, Virtual Assistant, announced today that she is the recipient of the VAccolade Business Entrepreneurial award.

The VAccolade award not only recognizes participation at the Virtual Assistant Networking Association (www.VAnetworking.com), but also recognizes the professionalism with which D'Aviero presents herself on the web, thereby giving her more credibility amongst other Virtual Assistants.

"Virtual Assistants (VAs) are business owners who work from their own office providing professional support, services and skills to their clients via phone, fax and internet based technology. Partnering with a VA reduces stress, protects cash flow, eliminates administrative hassles, and enables business people to find the success they originally set out to achieve. A VA is your right hand person helping you to succeed in your business. The irony is you may never meet your VA as odds are they live nowhere near you!" (definition from www.VAnetworking.com).

D'Aviero specializes in two areas: document editing, proofreading and formatting, as well as finance, data and cost analysis. She is a home-based administrative professional providing various online services to her clients. She started her 'virtual' career over ten years ago. Her business has evolved over time from being a food and beverage consultant with a multi-unit restaurant chain, building databases, training manuals and analyzing controllable costs, to what it is today, as a Virtual Assistant. She enjoys the freedom of working from home, of being her own boss, and of working with a variety of clients in multiple industries.

In a recent survey from VAnetworking, the United States has the largest number of VAs, followed by Canada, Australia and Europe. Clients only pay for time spent on their projects. There's no need to pay for taxes, benefits, equipment, etc. VAs are hired on an hourly or a monthly retainer basis.
