PR9.NET April 09, 2008 - Garner, North Carolina - Independent Living Technologies, Inc. (www.ILTsource.com) announced today that it's customers can now enjoy the benefit of free ground shipping on all orders shipped to the continental United States. The free shipping is extended to all orders and on all items on ILTsource.com, excluding oversized items.

"Offering our customers free shipping is a way for ILT to encourage and reward loyalty in our customer base. We work very hard to offer the lowest prices on the net on all of our 2,000 products, and the elimination of shipping charges should greatly compliment the savings we already offer our customers," said Douglas Geier, Vice President of Operations.

In addition to free shipping, Independent Living Technologies offers low pricing, disability assessment, consumer-purchasing advice, and access to live help, special discounts and product promotions.
