New Road Property consultants release details on luxury villas available in Andreana Gardens, a new luxury property development in Larnaca, Cyprus. Peter Andre has recently purchased a luxury villa in this residential property development; New Road Property describes the reasons why these luxury Cyprus villas are attracting such interest.

PR9.NET April 30, 2008 - London, UK – New Road Property Consultants Ltd announces availability of 2, 3 and 4 bedroom luxury villas in the Andreana Gardens residential property development currently under construction in Anafotia village near Larnaca, Cyprus. Ecolia Development & Construction Ltd, the Australian property developers constructing the luxury villas are very well respected, having won several awards over the 30 years that they have been building houses.

Lee Sherman, overseas property expert at New Road Property said: "We are very excited to be able to offer such fantastic luxury properties in this new Cyprus property development. Ecolia are really pushing the boat out and constructing villas that not only have the latest luxury lifestyle features such as private pools, Jacuzzis and five star gym and tennis facilities, but are also environmentally smart."

"This luxury Cyprus development can cater for a diverse range of overseas property buyers," Lee continues. "Due to proximity to the international airport and the varied attractions of the Larnaca area, purchasing a luxury villa in the Andreana Gardens development is a sound financial property investment as well as the ideal location for a Cyprus holiday home. People with families that are looking for Cyprus villas of this quality would be delighted with the child friendly environment; a children's play area in the communal gardens and lots of safe sandy beaches nearby," Lee enthused. "The villa's spacious floor plan is designed to accommodate easy family living and entertaining. Large windows surround the family room and the spacious gourmet kitchen is flooded with natural light and space. For people seeking the best Cyprus property, this luxury villa development really mustn't be missed," he concluded.
