Blue Mountain Springs Wellness Products Ltd. announces the launch of its e-commerce website www.painrelief.md where, for the first time, Canadians are able to purchase the very popular topical pain relief products known as Super Blue Stuff OTC, from a Canadian-based on-line store.

PR9.NET May 02, 2008 - Canada - Toronto, Ontario Now that people are living longer and working longer. Super Blue Stuff OTC offers a safe, effective and natural pain relief to help people stay happy, healthy and productive.

Now Canadian pain sufferers have quicker and easier access to this safe, effective topical pain-relief alternative. Unlike many prescription pain-killers and over the counter pain-relief pills with their negative impacts on the stomach, digestive system, blood pressure, and so on, Super Blue Stuff OTC has no known side effects. Super Blue Stuff OTC can even be safely employed in conjunction with other pain relief solutions or medications, prescribed or otherwise.

As the population of Canada ages, Super Blue Stuff OTC helps meet the growing need for effective management of joint pain to improve quality of life, reduce health costs and maintain productivity.

This popular line of pain relief products, developed by Oklahoma-based inventor Jack McClung, has become a household name in the United States and in thousands of households across Canada because of its remarkable ability to help arthritis and other pain sufferers manage pain and live happier, more fulfilling lives.

At <http://www.painrelief.md/infomercial.htm> you can preview the upcoming infomercial, featuring numerous testimonials from Doctors, Professional Athletes and Consumers who suffered from a wide variety of painful health conditions. They relate how they rely on Super Blue Stuff OTC to help deal with their arthritic, joint and muscle pain. The company's impressive list of written testimonials can be found at <http://www.painrelief.md/user-testimonials.htm>

Super Blue Stuff OTC is NOT A DRUG, but instead an FDA approved Over The Counter topical pain relief product. It comes in a variety of sizes: the most popular 4.4 oz. jar, the purse-size 1.25 oz. tube, the convenient 2 oz. roll-on, the most cost-effective 12 oz. pump, as well as travel paks.

Super Blue Stuff OTC contains a proprietary blend of therapeutic ingredients known for their healing, anti-inflammatory and pain-relieving properties, including: Menthol, Aloe Vera, Glucosamine, Pure Australian Emu Oil, MSM, and a number of other natural ingredients.

Now Canadian customers no longer have to face delays due to cross-border shipping. All orders are shipped within Canada via Canada Post, and usually arrive within 2 to 5 days.
