Judges Also Vote Senti7 as Finalist Among Best New Computer Software Products

PR9.NET May 15, 2008 - Bellevue, WA - Pharmacy OneSource was named a finalist today for the "Best Customer Service Organization/Department" and Senti7 was named a finalist for the "Best New Product or Service - Computer Software" categories in The 2008 American Business Awards.

With Senti7, clinicians have a single point of access to lab results, medication records and patient demographics, which are combined through HL7 interfaces. Clinicians can write rules against the data to identify and flag at-risk patients.

"I am thrilled that the ABA has recognized our commitment to providing quality software products and outstanding customer service," said Keith Streckenbach, Chief Strategy Officer at Pharmacy OneSource. "These two aspects of our business are the most important in helping us achieve our goal of enabling swift and safe healthcare."

More than 2,600 entries from companies of all sizes and in virtually every industry were submitted for consideration in more than 40 categories.

"ABA entries grew more than 30% this year, so being named a finalist is more of an accomplishment than ever before," said Michael Gallagher, founder and president of The Stevie Awards. "It means that independent business executives have agreed that the nominee is worthy of national recognition. We congratulate all of the Finalists on their achievement and wish them well in the competition."
