Pinnacle Marketing Enterprises launches a historical platform in response to the recent monumental nomination of the first African American Presidential Candidate, Barack Obama.

PR9.NET June 18, 2008 - Southfield, MI - Pinnacle Marketing Enterprises launches a platform to be recorded in history. With the recent nomination of the first African American presidential candidate, Pinnacle Marketing Enterprise has launched a program which will not only offer support to Presidential Candidate Barack Obama, but will also highlight all the monumental historical changes of such a profound time the nation is experiencing. More information about the Realize the Dream program and products is available online (<http://www.realizethedream08.com>)

Pinnacle Marketing Enterprises has devised a program allowing supporters of Barack Obama to become a part of history. With the purchase of a "Realize the Dream Certificate" the purchaser receives a certificate which can be framed and kept as a family memoir in addition to having their name and certificate number added to a online roll call which will ultimately be included in a historical book premiering in December, 2008. "In the early 1960's many people held marches and the like to take a stand on certain topics and to take a stand for change. Had it not been for those marches, the time we are experiencing would not be possible," says Tiffany Smith, public relations coordinator for Pinnacle Marketing Enterprises.

Pinnacle Marketing Enterprises makes reference to the speeches of equality given in 1963 by both John F. Kennedy, and Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. In Dr. King's "I Have A Dream" speech which has become a monumental part of history he focused on equality and the days when race were not an issue in everyday lives. The mere fact that Barack Obama has been nominated as the Democratic presidential candidate, shows that the nation has moved toward to the realization of that dream. Realize the Dream historical book will outline the positive changes the nation has made and the monumental experiences of the presidential campaigns as well as other historical relevancies. Certificate holders will have the opportunity to enter a drawing and win the winners will be allowed to contribute snippets of how this historical time has impacted them and their families.
