Established Denver area based Mercedes-Benz dealership anticipates strong interest in the new Mercedes-Benz GLK-Class SUV slated for availability by January of 2009.

PR9.NET June 24, 2008 - Denver, Colorado - Denver area Mercedes-Benz dealer Mercedes-Benz of Littleton has announced its advance preparations for the upcoming availability of the new Mercedes-Benz GLK-Class SUV. The new Mercedes-Benz GLK-Class has received widespread publicity of late in connection with its featured appearance in the film 'Sex and the City'. Popularity of the film has helped increase public awareness and interest in the Mercedes-Benz GLK in Denver and nationwide.

Mercedes-Benz of Littleton provides attentive customer service to its loyal customer base from its location on Broadway in Littleton just four blocks north of E-470. The Mercedes-Benz dealership enjoys a reputation throughout Colorado and the Rocky Mountain region as a reputable and trusted dealership that provides a high quality experience for Mercedes-Benz automobile sales and service customers.

In the words of Mercedes-Benz, "The completely new GLK-Class embodies the spirit and visual appeal of our full-sized SUVs, while expressing a powerful identity all its own. The luxurious GLK interior is both accommodating and versatile, offering exceptional comfort for five along with abundant cargo space.

The bodywork is equally seductive to the eye, revealing the latest Mercedes-Benz design idiom of chiseled lines, athletic contours, and unique surfaces. Inside, the GLK is appointed with rich wood trim, privacy glass, a multi function steering wheel with a display in the instrument cluster, and design cues that make it clear this is a Mercedes-Benz."

The Denver area Mercedes-Benz dealer is open Monday through Saturday. Additional information about Mercedes-Benz of Littleton and its inventory of automobiles is available at the company's website at www.mboflittleton.com or the company blog at www.mercedesbenzlittletonblog.com.
