Pro Bono Video promotes NH Made products and services

PR9.NET June 26, 2008 - MANCHESTER, NH – Heartwood Media, an award-winning Manchester, NH based TV and digital media production company just put the finishing touches on a video for NH Made, the winner of the 2007 Heartwood Non-Profit Challenge. Heartwood Media also provided the video in a web friendly format so it can be accessed by visitors to the NH Made website.

New Hampshire Made is a statewide membership organization that promotes New Hampshire-made products and services.

"We're proud to be a part of the New Hampshire community," said Chris Conroy, Creative Director of Heartwood Media. "New Hampshire Made does an incredible amount of work to promote NH Made products and services. We're happy to provide the organization with a great tool to use to get their message out to a larger audience."

"Heartwood Media gave us exactly what we needed – a visual, inspirational and informative piece that captured the essence of why buying locally produced products is not only good for helping to sustain our local communities and rural landscapes, but also good for the consumer who purchases quality products made with pride. Heartwood exceeded our expectations, devoting an enormous amount of time and energy to make this video just right. New Hampshire Made cannot thank them enough for producing a message that that will have a lasting impact on our state's local entrepreneurial businesses." said Laurie Ferguson, Executive Director of NH Made.

Heartwood Media is in the planning stages of this year's pro bono project for the New Hampshire Food Bank. Non-profit organizations are invited to visit www.heartwoodmedia.com for more information, or to sign up for an email newsletter to be notified about next year's Non-Profit Challenge.
